

OUR DATA SET CATALOGUES MORE THAN:

547 TARGETED ATTACKS ON POLITICIANS AND PARTY AFFILIATES
NEARLY 200 TARGETED ATTACKS ON TRADITIONAL AND RELIGIOUS LEADERS.

142 ON CIVIL SERVANTS (EXCLUDING POLICE OFFICERS OR MEMBERS OF THE MILITARY).

IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR, MORE THAN 100 BUSINESSPEOPLE AND MORE THAN 100 TRADE-UNION AFFILIATES WERE TARGETED.

Politicians

547

Targeted violence against politicians is not necessarily confined to general election years.

Particularly those who were involved in the country's taxi and petroleum industries

Businessmen / Entrepreneurs / Trade Union Affiliates

214

223

Traditional and Religious Leaders

192

142

101

94

Civil Servants

Cults and Campus-related violence

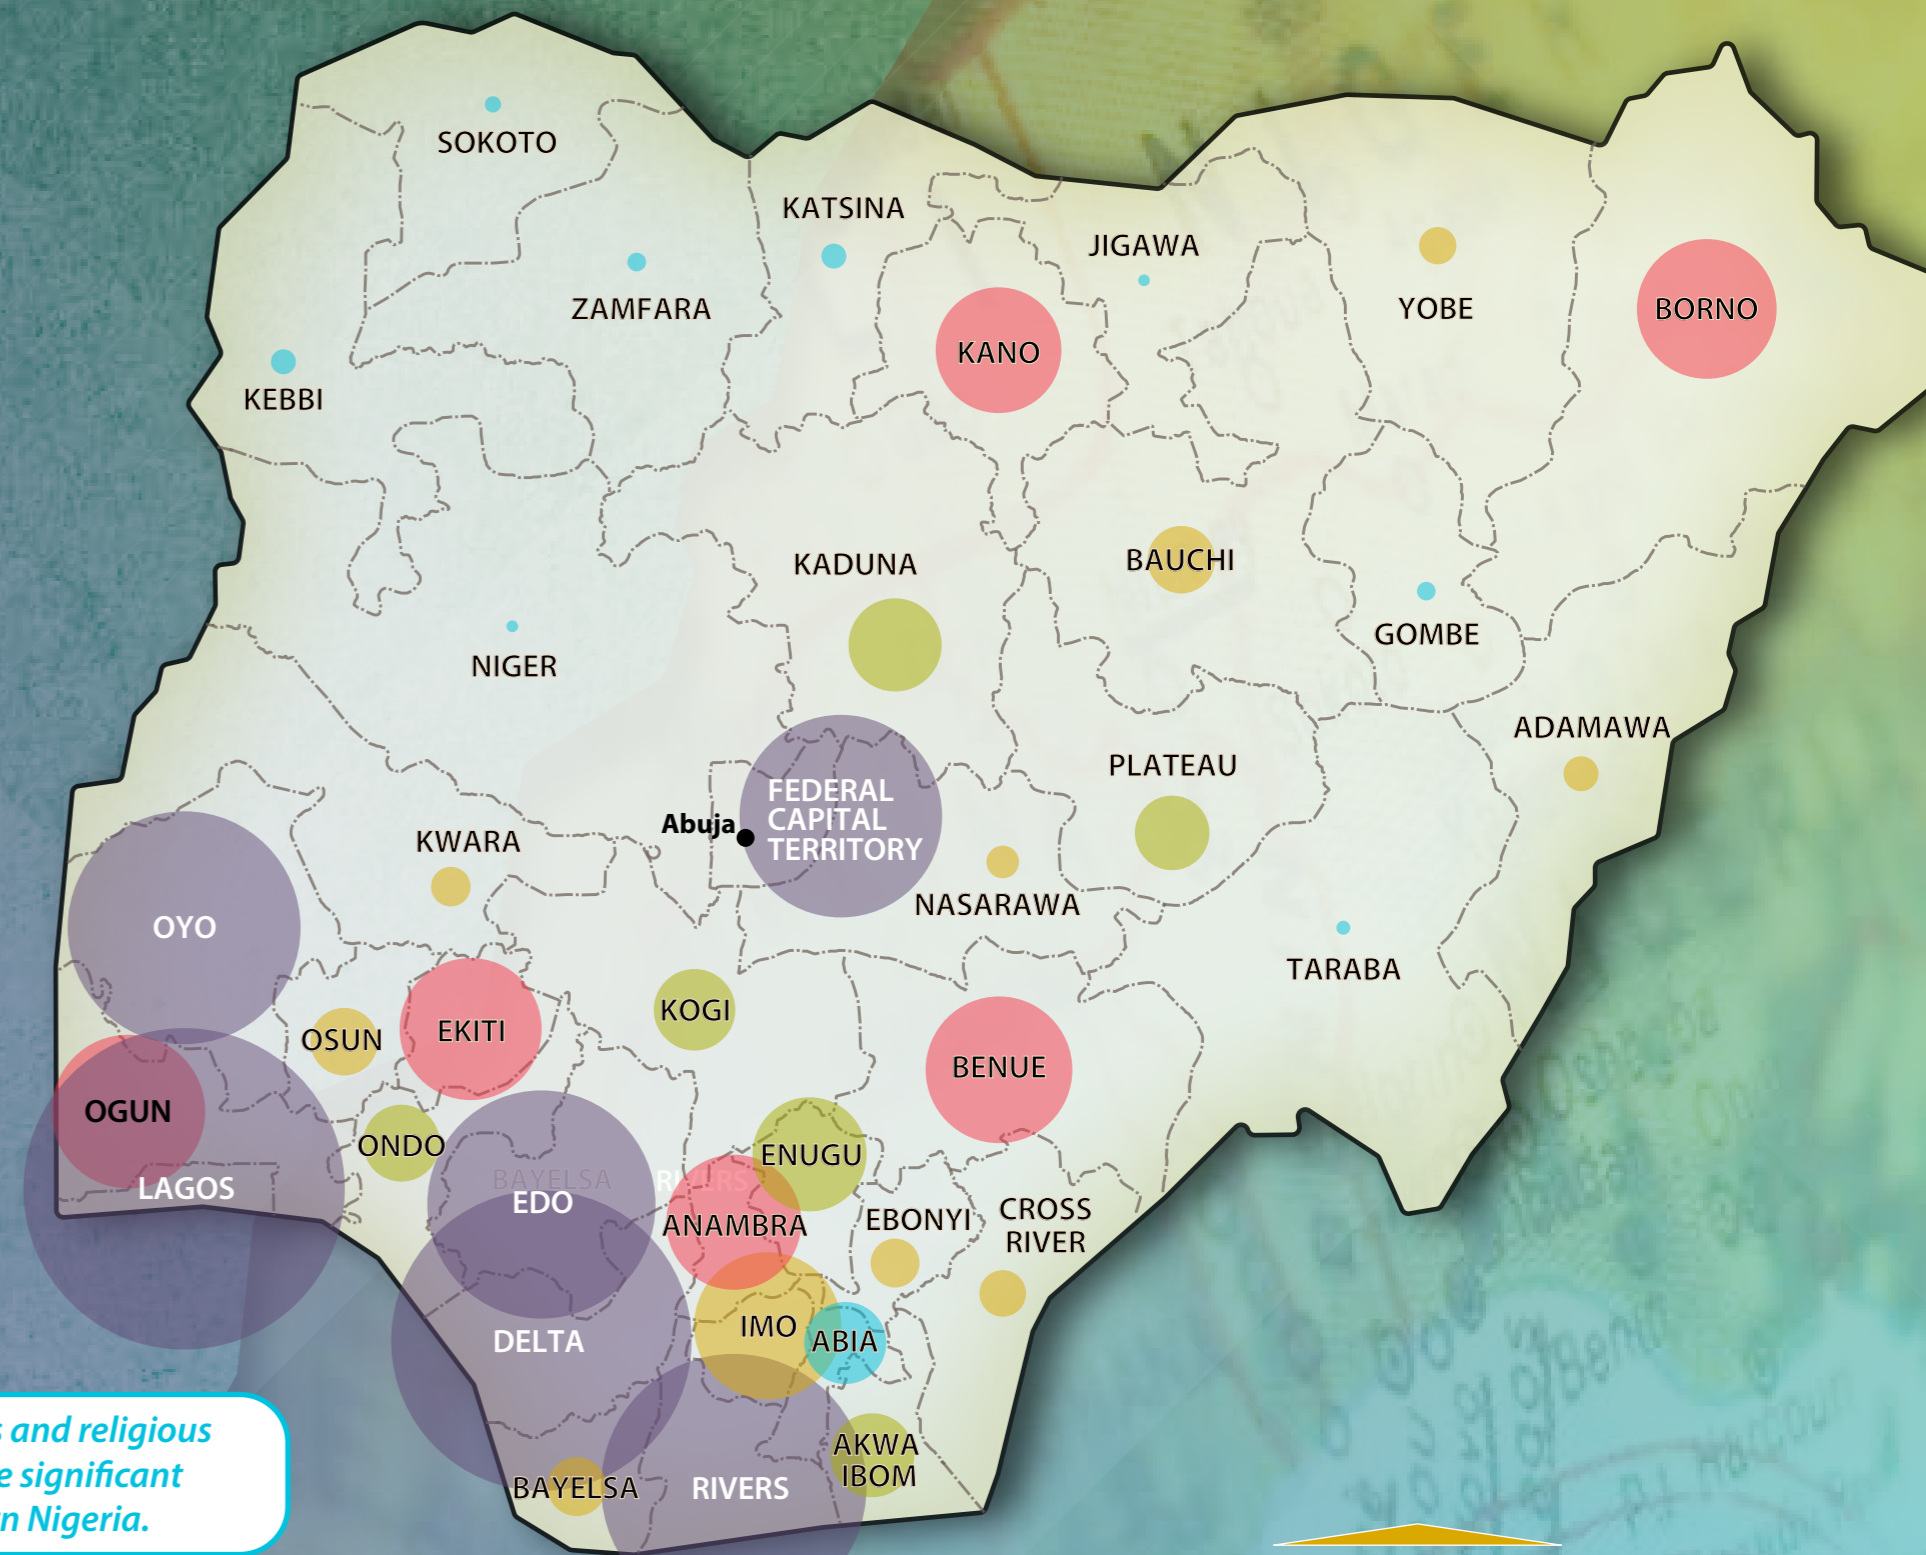

52

Security personnel

Journalists

Nigeria has repeatedly been identified as one of the deadliest countries for journalists to work.

TARGETED VIOLENCE AGAINST POLITICIANS IS MORE COMMON IN THE COUNTRY'S SOUTH:

PATTERNS OF VIOLENCE DIFFERED GREATLY AMONG GEOPOLITICAL REGION.

Traditional leaders and religious authorities exercise significant influence in modern Nigeria.

Students, academics, university staff, or cult members

Civilians / Witnesses / Family members

