

On the occasion of the 28th UN Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ)

The Global Initiative Against Transnational Organized Crime

is delighted to invite you to attend the official launch of the Resilience Fund in Vienna, Austria at a high-level panel discussion and cocktail reception.

on
Tuesday
21 May

From 18:00 until 21:00

at
Wolke 21,
Saturn Tower

Leonard-Bernstein-Straße 10,
1220 Vienna

RSVP

Please confirm your attendance to ian.tennant@globalinitiative.net or register at this link.

gi-resilience-fund-launch.eventbrite.com

RESILIENCE FUND

The newly-created Resilience Fund aims to counter the impacts of organized crime worldwide by supporting civil society and non-state actors who operate in environments of criminal governance. In a number of places around the globe, civil society actors have become crucial in the fight against organized crime, and the personal risks that they take are significant.

WELCOME REMARKS

Mark Shaw, Director, Global Initiative

Amb. Kjersti Andersen, Permanent Representative of Norway to the UN in Vienna

THE ROLE OF CIVIL SOCIETY IN BUILDING RESILIENCE AGAINST ORGANIZED CRIME

Chaired by Siria Gastelum Felix, Resilience Director, Global Initiative

Griselda Triana, Journalist, activist and wife of slain journalist, Javier Valdez

Rani Hong, CEO, Tronie Foundation

Miguel Syjuco, Journalist and writer