

Northumbria University
NEWCASTLE

END WILDLIFE CRIME

GLOBAL INITIATIVE
AGAINST TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME

A Discussion on Tackling Illicit Wildlife Trafficking through an Additional Protocol to the UNTOC

24 February 2022

Arcotel, Kaiserwasser - Wagramer Str. 8, 1220 Vienna

Agenda

13:00 – 13:05 Welcome - John Scanlon, EWC (remotely); Paula Francisco Coelho, Secretary of State for Environment of Angola (TBC)

13:05 – 13:15 The history and evolution of UNTOC - Ian Tennant, GI-TOC

13:15 – 13:25 The case for an additional protocol on illicit wildlife trafficking - John Scanlon, the Global Initiative to End Wildlife Crime (remotely)

13:25 – 13:45 Illicit wildlife trafficking is an urgent global threat – Professor Tanya Wyatt, Northumbria University

13:45 – 14:05 Illicit wildlife trafficking is a serious crime converging with other crimes – Dr Daan van Uhm, Utrecht University

14:05 – 14:25 – An UNTOC protocol to protect marine species – Daniel Kachelreiss, Sea Shepherd Legal

14:25 – 14:40 — Q&A

Coffee Break

15:00 – 15:30 The benefits of the Weapons Protocol - Anna Alvazzi del Frate (remotely)

15:30 – 16:00 – International Mechanisms for Tackling Illicit Wildlife Trafficking – Dr Angus Nurse (remotely)

16:00 – 16:30 Closing discussion – timeline of future activities

MORE INFO

Prof. Tanya Wyatt

tanya.wyatt@northumbria.ac.uk

