

SIDE EVENT

Giovanni Falcone and Italian society's fight against Cosa Nostra

Thursday 30th June 10am

Vienna International Centre,
Conference Room 3 (7th floor)
and online:
Click here to register

This event will explore Italy's experiences in combatting the mafia and transnational organized crime, with a focus on the efforts of prominent judicial figures such as Giovanni Falcone and Paolo Borsellino, and how all sectors of society have played a role in the common struggle.

The event will consist of a panel discussion including representatives of Italy, GI-TOC, UNODC and civil society, and a presentation of the new GI-TOC Report "Once upon a time in Palermo: Giovanni Falcone and the fight against Cosa Nostra".

Click on publication to view

AGENDA

WELCOMING REMARKS:

Amb. Alessandro Cortese - Permanent Representative of Italy to the International Organizations in Vienna

Mark Shaw - Director, Global Initiative Against Transnational Organized Crime

Jean-Luc Lemahieu - Director of the Division for Policy Analysis and Public Affairs, UNODC

SPEAKERS:

Ruggiero Scaturro - Analyst, Global Initiative Against Transnational Organized Crime

Maria Vittoria De Simone - Deputy Prosecutor, Italian National Antimafia and Counterterrorism Directorate

Riikka Puttonen - Programme manager of the global programme on implementation of the UNTOC, UNODC

Anna Alvazzi del Frate - Chair, The Alliance of NGOs on Crime Prevention & Criminal Justice

MODERATOR:

Francesco Testa - Italian Public Prosecutor and European Delegated Prosecutor