

RESILIENCE
FUND

GLOBAL INITIATIVE

WEBINAR

Lessons of Resilience:

Experiences, challenges,
and insights from the ground

Thursday, November 6, 2025

3:00 PM CET (Vienna) / 8:00 AM (Mexico City)
2:00 PM (Ghana) / 7:30 PM (Guwahati, India)

Register here

Interpretation available

Civil society is a frontline actor in responding to organized crime.

Building on the Resilience in Action policy brief, this webinar brings together Resilience Fund partners from Latin America, Africa, and Asia to share concrete strategies, lessons, and tools for strengthening community resilience.

Join us to reflect on the power of local action, explore innovative responses, and highlight how communities are shaping safer, fairer futures despite challenging contexts.

Speakers

Juan Camilo Cock

Resilience Fund
Advisory Council member

Siria Gastélum Félix

Resilience Director, Global Initiative against Transnational Organized Crime

Patricia Neves

Project Assistant,
Resilience Fund

Patricia Mayorga, Mexico

Community storytelling, resistance and indigenous territories

Jimmy Borah, India

Community surveillance and protection against environmental crime

Agnes Atanga, Ghana

Women's leadership in mining regions, advocacy and legal aid